

THE FOLDED MAP

AUSTIN AND THE TEXAS HILL COUNTRY

What makes Austin and the Texas Hill Country great

The capital of Texas' unofficial motto is "Keep Austin Weird." And it lives up to that with eclectic characters, a vibrant nightlife and unconventional eateries. Plus the city is biker friendly, playing host to the largest gated bike event in the Lone Star State and is a starting point for many trips into some of the best bike riding in the state, the Texas Hill Country.

Top motorcycle events in Austin and the Texas Hill Country

St. Valentine's Day Massacre, Hill Country Run, Republic of Texas Biker Rally, Pecan Grove Classic, Johnson City Pig Roast, Harvest Classic

Biker-friendly establishments

Bar: Luckenbach General Store

Restaurant: Stubb's Bar-B-Q

Lodging: Peach Tree Inn

Quintessential local cuisine

Barbecue, Chicken fried steak. Sweet tea

Dealerships close to the city

Cowboy Harley-Davidson of Austin, Central Texas Harley-Davidson, Cowboy Alamo City Harley-Davidson, Mission City Indian Motorcycle, Gruene Harley-Davidson, Javelina Harley-Davidson, Dream Machines Indian Motorcycle, Caliente Harley-Davidson

Motorcycle-related attractions

Revival Cycles, Lone Star Motorcycle Museum

Local rides

Head west from Austin on FM 2244 (Bee Cave Road), take RR 12 south to State Highway 290, then west to Fredericksburg for lunch. Backtrack east on 290, and drop south on FM 1376 to Luckenbach, onto RR 1888 to Blanco, RR 165/FM 2325 to Wimberly and finally north on RR 12 to Dripping Springs and back on 290 into south Austin.

TEXAS HILL COUNTRY

Content provided by Robert Filla

Unfold the map in YOUR pocket and tell us where to go next! Email us at tpress@thunderpress.net.